Waverley, N.S.W. 2024

Ladies and Gentlemen,

On behalf of the Board of Management I have pleasure in presenting and recommending the adoption of the Annual Report and Balance Sheet as at 30th June 2016, and Statements of accounts for the year then ended.

Particulars of Income and Expenditure are discussed in detail in the Auditor's Report.

Subs will remain at $5.50 or $11 for 3 years and we will endeavour to maintain our present bar prices which are more than competitive with the majority of our sister clubs in the area.

Free live entertainment will continue four nights a week with Friday evening, Spinna-Winna continues to be a hit. Lots of prizes, meat trays, etc. followed by entertainment. Saturday evenings feature live bands and entertainers. Watch for notices and announcements which will advise you of the coming events. Karaoke Wednesday and Sunday evening.

Keno facilities are also in operation on the ground floor.

For dinner the Eastern Suburbs Legion Club Bistro open 6 days. Why not come in and treat yourself to a home cooked meal, without the work or the washing up? Now open for lunch, Wednesday to Sunday.

The first floor continues to operate as a gym hosted by Trent Langlands. All welcome, guaranteed to improve your figure at cheap rates.

As passed at the 1997 A.G.M., postal voting has been replaced by local voting on the Club premises commencing at 6.00 p.m. A ballot paper will be available from the office for each Member for which he/she has to sign and then place in a sealed ballot box. The key will be in the custody of an independent scrutineer.

Many thanks to our manager David Byrne and his staff over the past year for their efficient service to the club and its members.

Peter Julian Bruce

Peter was born on the 23rd May, 1927 at Lindfield to Myrtle Ivy Handley and John Colin Bruce. He was the eldest of four children.

Peter completed his schooling at Marist Brothers Lidcombe, where he obtained his Intermediate Certificate. On leaving school, and towards the end of the Second World War, he joined the Royal Australian Navy. He saw active duty in Papua New Guinea, whilst serving as a seaman on HMAS Warrnambool.

On leaving the Navy Peter obtained employment as a bank clerk with the Commonwealth Bank in the City. Peter married Patricia Muirhead in 1951. They had five children, Christopher, Mark, Paul, Lindy and Michael. Peter worked hard to support his family and at times had three jobs, as a bank clerk, barman and cleaner.

Apart from a few years in Bathurst where Peter was the Area Manager for BP Australia and his time in the bank, Peter established a career for himself in the club industry. He was appointed Secretary Manager of a number of golf clubs, namely Warringah, Cromer, Narooma and Bonnie Doon, before being appointed Secretary Manager of the Eastern Suburbs Legion Club in 1983. From a shaky financial position, Peter turned the club around. It now has both a healthy bank balance and freehold ownership of the clubhouse and land on which the club was built. He loved the club, the committee and its members.

In 1994 Peter was elected a Life Member of the Club and in 2012 was elected a Life Member of the Legion.

Peter married Judy Turnbull in 1987 and Judy's stepson, Malcolm Turnbull, spoke at their wedding. Malcolm also spoke at the Celebration of Peter's Life.

Peter and Judy had a zest for life and went dancing, golfing, travelling and socialising. Peter played golf at New South Wales Golf Club on Wednesdays and Sundays until mid 2015 when ill health prevented him from playing. He also played every Thursday with a group of friends at Woollahra Golf Club and weekly lawn bowls at the Bronte Bowling Club.

Peter loved his church. He was a regular church-goer and supporter of the Catholic faith. Peter led his life by being nice to others, engaging with people, making them feel important, worthwhile, comfortable within themselves and always leaving them with a smile on their faces.

That was Pete, Judy's husband, a father, a grandfather and great grandfather, a brother and a great mate.

Peter left us on 6th January, 2016 and will be sadly missed by all his many friends and family.

God Bless.
