Ladies and Gentlemen,

On behalf of the Board of Management I have pleasure in presenting and recommending the adoption of the Thirty-Sixth Annual Report and Balance Sheet as at 30th June 2009, and Statements of accounts for the year then ended.

Particulars of Income and Expenditure are discussed in detail in the Auditor's Report.

Subs will remain at $5.50 or $11 for 3 years and we will endeavour to maintain our present bar prices which are more than competitive with the majority of our sister clubs in the area.

Free live entertainment will continue five nights a week with Friday evening, Spinna-Winna continues to be a hit. Lots of prizes, meat trays, etc. followed by entertainment. Saturday evenings feature live bands and entertainers. Watch for notices and announcements which will advise you of the coming events. Karaoke Wednesday and Sunday evening.

Keno facilities are also in operation on the ground floor.

For dinner the Eastern Suburbs Legion Club Bistro open 6 days. Why not come in and treat yourself to a home cooked meal, without the work or the washing up? Now open for lunch, Wednesday to Friday.

The first floor continues to operate as a gym hosted by Stuart Austin. All welcome, guaranteed to improve your figure at cheap rates.

As passed at the 1997 A.G.M., postal voting has been replaced by local voting on the Club premises commencing 4th September to 18th September at 6.00 p.m. A ballot paper will be available from the office for each Member for which he/she has to sign and then place in a sealed ballot box. ANZAC SUNDAY

The Memorial Service by the Clubs in the Municipality of Waverley was conducted in Waverley Park. President, Mr. Bev Hopkins, and George Campbell, were present at the wreath-laying ceremony.

ANZAC SUNDAY

President, Mr. Bev Hopkins, and Mr. George Campbell attended a Dawn Service along with many of our members and laid a wreath on behalf of the Club. Thanks to our members who attended this service. Later, Club Members assembled at Bondi Junction/Waverley R.S.L. and marched to Waverley Park for the Anzac Memorial Service at 7.45 a.m. and the laying of wreaths in memory of departed comrades. A wreath was also laid at a Memorial Service at Bronte Surf Club at 10.30 a.m. Lunch was provided at the Legion Club between 12 noon and 2 p.m. with live entertainment during the afternoon and evening. A great day. The same format will apply this year.

SOCIAL FUNCTIONS

Our Christmas Social was again the event of the year (standing room only). A BBQ and drinks were supplied at a cost of $15 for members and $25 for visitors. Yes, all you can eat between 8pm and 12pm. See you there this year, same time, same place.

Our Golf Club is still active and the competition between players very keen. We play monthly (Sunday) at Royal Randwick. A BBQ and drinks follow our game twice a year, mainly to discuss your handicap - all to no avail. Due to retirements, mainly old age and sickness, we require a few new members. For information contact Glen Smith.

Annual Cricket Match at Queens Park. A great day was enjoyed by all the members and their families and friends. A BBQ and refreshments were supplied during the day consequently the cricket standard only improved. The result was a narrow victory to Glen Smith's side over a tiring Merv Seymour's team. It's on again next year, so watch the noticeboard for details.

LEST WE FORGET

To the families who have lost loved ones during the year, we offer our sincere condolences.

APPRECIATIONS

To our Auditor, David Hoggett and staff on financial matters, Wayne Richardson for cleaning and maintenance. To Legion Head Office for their assistance. Also Judy Bruce for typing.

To George Campbell for selling the "Spinna-Winna" tickets and again to Glen and Vicki Smith for the Thursday night Badge Draw.

To all those who have assisted and have not been mentioned, a very big thanks. To Peter Bruce, thanks for the way you have promoted and kept the Club running smoothly, especially financially.

To David and his staff thanks for your friendly and excellent service.

In conclusion to the members and their friends, thanks for patronising the biggest little Club in the world.

TREASURER'S REPORT

The Club continues to trade profitably with a profit before taxation of $76,566. The result is rewarding considering the challenges over the past year mainly due to the introduction of new smoking laws and the downturn in the economy, resulting in a loss of some 20 to 30 percent of income to the majority of clubs and hotels and in some cases resulting in closure.

However I am pleased to report that your Club is in a sound financial position with approximately $1,800,000 in various investments.

Many thanks to you the members for your continued support and to the Board of Management for their confidence and finally to David Byrne and staff for a job well done.

P. BRUCE

Treasurer

MANAGER'S REPORT

Throughout 2008/09 we have seen the Club prosper and reap the benefits of a well planned and appealing upgrade. This will continue into 2009/10 and years to come. The finances being spent on the upgrades come from you the Members, and will go back into the Club through improved amenities.

To all the bar Staff, I thank you for your support and dedication throughout 2008/09 and look forward to a bigger and better 2009/10. The staff have been fantastic all year.

The events held by the Club throughout the year have all been well attended and I'm sure this will continue into 2009/10, as they are all organised for you, the members.

Thank you to the board of Directors for your continued support and guidance throughout 2008/09 and into 2009/10.
